REFUSE EDUCATION

HOLY ROLLER REFUSES TO SEND CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

Judge Bailey Fines Two Women $5 Each Under Provisions Of The Compulsory Education Law

Arguing that "worldly wisdom is foolishness in the sight of God," Mrs. J. E. Johnson, who lives below Waynesburg refused to send her children to public school, and when brought before Judge Bailey in county court here Thursday, she gave that as her reason for not obeying the compulsory education law, under the provisions of which she was cited into court by County School Inspector W. H. W. Reynolds. Mrs. Johnson is said to be a Holy Roller, and she gave the above as Scriptural cause for not educating her two children who are between the ages of 7 and 12. She came into town accompanied by five small children, the balance of her brood being under school age. Mrs. Mary Hail was also arrested on a similar charge. Judge Bailey fined the two $5 and costs. Mrs. Johnson asked the court to send her to jail but Judge Bailey gave her 15 days in which to secure the money, at the end of which time, he said that he would have her brought in and placed in jail if she did not pay the fine.

William Mobley, a Crab Orchard negro, was held to the grand jury under $50 bond on a charge of deserting his infant children, which is now a felony. He is said to be working in Garrard. Will Adams went on his bond.

The case against Ray Boone, who was charged with obstructing the public highway, was continued.

The charge against Ella Vandever, colored, of using abusing and insulting language and "calling out of her name" Mrs. Humthries, was continued on account of an absent witness.

George C. Hughes, aged 72, of the McKinney section charged with indecent exposure of person, was dismissed.

Strike May Be Averted

Wilson's Strong Hand Seems To Have Warded Off Crisis

With the announcement on the part of the railroad brotherhood late Thursday that passage of the proposed eight-hour law would be regarded as a satisfactory settlement on their part, the belief grew in Washington that means had been discovered to prevent the nation-wide railroad strike. Both the Senate and House took up consideration of the legislation today and when finally passed by both houses, the measure will be rushed to the president for his signature. Little opposition is being manifested by the republicans. The railroads insist that in addition to the eight-hour law the rest of the president's program must be passed before the situation will be acceptable to them and the passage of the eight-hour law alone may precipitate a court fight on their part.

HANSON—CLAY

At the home of the bride in the Moreland section on Wednesday, Miss Ella S. Hanson, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hanson, was united in matrimony to M. D. Clay, of Houston, Va. The groom is a propulsive automobile dealer of his home town. The two had been sweethearts for years and the announcement of their marriage does not come as a surprise to their immediate friends. Mrs. Clay will be missed in the West End of the county, where she has a large circle of friends.

CUPID'S DOINGS

Charles Thompson, aged 18, and Miss Pearl Scarbrough, both of the Southern end of the county, were joined in wedlock's holy bonds by Judge James P. Bailey at the courthouse Wednesday.

William Turner and Miss Rossie Noaks were married at the bride's home in the East End by Rev. Brock on the 30th. Both are popular people of their section.

DIXIE ROOK CLUB ENTERTAINED

Miss Anne Davis McRoberts entertained the Dixie Rook Club at her home on Logan avenue in an attractive style Thursday evening. Fruit punch and ice cream made delightful refreshments. Mrs. Harry Hill scored the most games. In addition to members of the club the guests were Miss Mary Bruce, Mrs. W. J. Dozier, Mrs. Cari Carter, Mrs. Robert Carter and Miss E. E. Early.

COL. DINWIDDIE ROBBED

Col. John B. Dinwiddie, the silver-tongued auctioneer of Moreland, had $12 or $15 taken from his trousers the other night. On retiring he left his pants on a chair by the side of his bed. When he awoke next morning they were gone. Later they were found on the porch and his wad gone. The marauder was clever enough to leave the colonel some $75 in checks.

M'KECHNIE LEAVES M'KINNEY

The many friends formed during their sojourn at McKinney will learn with regret that Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mc'Kinney have returned to Burnside to reside. Mr. Mc'Kinney retains his interest in the Mc'Kinney mill but his partner, Mr. Vaughan of Burnside, will manage the Mc'Kinney enterprise while he runs the mill at his old home.

SELLS SMALL FARM

Real Estate Dealer A. B. Florence, of this city, sold for his father, J. C. Florence the Thomas Oaks farm, south of town to R. H. Hoskins, of Bell county. There are 33 acres in the farm, which lies almost on the crest of Hall's Gap, and is considered a nice little place.

Met At Mt. Moriah

Christian Sunday School Convention Had Delightful Session.

The Lincoln County Christian Sunday School Convention was held on Tuesday, August 29, at Mt. Moriah, with Rev. D. M. Walker, president presiding. Inspiring addresses were delivered during the day.

The devotional exercises were conducted by the Mt. Moriah church. Rev. A. H. Baugh, of Hustonville gave an interesting address on "The North Middleton Church Institute." The Cradle Roll Department and "How to Observe Cradle Roll week" were discussed by Miss Emma Hays. Mrs. H. D. Phillips, who is a wide-awake Sunday School worker, gave a splendid talk on "The School of Methods," which she attended in Lexington in June.

Two of the most interesting features of the day were the addresses on "The New Standard of the Bible Efficiency," and "Seeing America," by Rev. Walter E. Fraze, our state worker, of Louisville.

Rev. L. N. Bowling, pastor of the Mt. Moriah church, delivered a splendid address on "The Present Status of the Rural Church." Rev. Bowling claims that the Rural church should occupy a place of prominence, but that it is hindered by the lack of energy, financial matters and incompleteness of rural life. Mr. Bowling is very much interested in the Rural Churches and is willing to do all in his power to help raise the standard of the Rural Church.

Mr. H. G. Skiles, cashier of the Crab Orchard Banking Company of Crab Orchard, was among the speakers of the day and added much to the program.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the dinner hour by the ladies of the Mt. Moriah church.

To the Roll Call of Schools by Rev. Fraze, ten churches responded with sixty-three delegates and twenty-seven visitors.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Rev. D. M. Walker, President; Mr. H. G. Skiles, Vice-President, and Miss Emma Hays, secretary. The next convention will be held at Crab Orchard.

Crab Orchard.

Hon. D. B. Edmiston, of Louisville, came this week to see his brother, Mr. John Edmiston, who is growing very feeble.

Mrs. Kate Slaughter Carson and Misses Rossa and Mary, of New Orleans are with Mrs. Claudia Holman. Mr. John Carson, of New Orleans joined his family here at noon Wednesday leaving with them for their home at 5 P. M.

Mr. Skiles' brother from Shelbyville is his guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Skiles entertained the Junior Endeavors at their home last Friday afternoon. Thirty-four sweet little tots gathered there and indulged in games, races and talks, from 3 to 5 P. M. Then they were treated to a large dish of fruit ice, which they certainly enjoyed. Mrs. George Stephenson and Misses Mayme Holman and Mary Shepherd Messer assisted Mrs. Skiles in the entertainment. Those parents who fail to send their little ones to this junior work are certainly robbing their children of great advantages for Mrs. Skiles and Mrs. Stephenson are exerting themselves to teach everything they can and things their busy mothers don't take time to tell them. In a few years these little ones will know more about religion than many grown-ups.

A man by the name of Spears, of New York went speeding thru town in his auto some days ago at sixty-five or seventy miles per hour. Police Judge Corum attempted to halt him without avail so he telephoned ahead to Mr. William Riggs, Marshal at Livingston, who arrested and fined Mr. Spears sending a check to Crab Orchard for $28.20. He was riding in a seven passenger Buick car. You had better be careful if you drive thru our little city or the marshal will get you sure.

Mrs. George Lyne, who has been visiting her mother in Havelock for a couple of months has returned. Her mother has been very ill but is improving.

Mrs. Bogue, of Lexington, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. L. Collier, this week.

Mr. Burdin, Mrs. Nan Elder and Miss Lucille Burdin motored to Lexington and Richmond last Thursday. Upon nearing home they had a puncture. The Doctor has traveled over four thousand miles in his car and this is his first accident. He is a most careful driver.

Mrs. Gover and Shirley motored to Lexington Wednesday to look up house preparatory to moving there to put her son, Shirley in school.

Mrs. Emma Farris left Friday for a visit to relatives at Silver Creek and Richmond. She will be absent about two weeks.

Miss Mayme Holman won the popularity prize given by the Millette Show. A cabinet containing one set of silver knives, forks, and large and small spoons, napkin rings, salt and pepper shakers, sugar spoons, pickle forks and a butter knife. Miss Jewell Goodwin was second in the race.

Mrs. Nancy Adams, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. Louis Bell.

Baby girls came to reside at the home of Mr. Estes and Mr. Murphy, this week.

Mrs. Charles Rutledge fell and broke her ankle a few days ago. She is recovering along nicely.

Mrs. M. E. Fish has been quite sick. Dr. Harmon was called to see her three times Tuesday. She seems better at this time.

Mrs. James Manuel has been real sick for over two weeks. Dr. Jones attends her.

Mr. Thomas Manuel and wife, of Gravel Switch, motored here Tuesday and were guests of his brother, James Manuel.

Mr. Arthur Stewart has typhoid fever. His son, Walter is about over with it. A brother of Mr. Stewart's near the depot is very low with the same disease and his recovery is doubtful.

President Wilson leaves Washington Sunday night for Hodgenville where he will speak at the Lincoln farm ceremonies Tuesday.

Stop The First Cold

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combination of soothing antiseptic balms in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young and old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle today at your druggist.

Samuel Bedford, a Lexington insurance man who mysteriously disappeared near High Bridge Feb. 18, is said to have been murdered in a barbershop which was really a bootlegging joint there. Officers have arrested five men, who are alleged to have cut his throat thinking he was hard for emergencies. At your Druggist, 25c.

Get the BANK book first, and be a man with money

The fundamental principles of education are "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic." All of these can be learned more practically in a BANK BOOK than in any other book. If your boy has a bank book he is learning what arithmetic is for. It is the practical application of a thing which teaches it is the most beneficial and lasting way.

If your boy has not got a bank account see that he opens one.

Good Work, Keenon.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals Rodman W. Keenon proved that he is the right man in the right place on Thursday when he boldly defied the Stanley liquor machine, and secured the appointment of a majority of democrats in whom he and the people of Kentucky have confidence, as democratic election commissioners for the various counties. Of course, the Courier-Journal and the Stanley machine henchmen who feel that they may not be able to control the democrats who are appointed, are letting out an awful howl. It was to be expected. They always do whenever they can't have things their own sweet way. Any time someone throws a monkey wrench into the Stanley machine, it begins to knock fearfully. But they were simply outgeneraled by Keenon, who proved once more that the democrats and people of Kentucky made no mistake when they elected him clerk of the court of appeals. Election Commissioner Oldham, one of Stanley's henchmen, claimed that Keenon was acting traitorously to the democratic party by so maneuvering as to obtain the democrats he wanted as the county commissioners. If Stanley and his satellites are the democratic party, as they seem to think, perhaps he was. But will any one who knows them say that such men as were named commissioners up in this end of the state are traitors to the party? Mr. Oldham would seem to brand them; such men as Col. Harris in this county; Eugene Pope in Boyle; Jim Clark in Garrard; R. B. Young in Casey; Murray Smith in Madison or C. F. Vanhook in Pulaski. Perhaps Mr. Oldham and Mr. Stanley may think that Mr. Keenon acted traitorously to the party when he had such men appointed election commissioners. It is their privilege. Every man is entitled to his own opinion. We hardly believe the great mass of people up in this end of the state who know these men will think that there is anything of the traitor to the democratic party or anything else in their make-up, Mr. Stanley's man Oldham to the contrary notwithstanding. The fact of the matter is that if there were more officials like Keenon with real backbones in them in the capitol at Frankfort, instead of the big bunch of Stanley McToos who are in positions of importance, old Kentucky would not now be a doubtful state because of Stanley's meager 400 majority last November, and because of the game he and his henchmen endeavor to put over on the people and the party whenever the opportunity presents itself. If this be treason, we shall be very glad to be classified with the squalid men that Oldham brands as "traitorous."
